

6516207428.txt

I understand that there is a fight going on regarding satellite radio. I use the XM service and love it. I don't want their programming guidelines changed because the NAB sees them as a threat, let the competition dictate what the market will bear. Don't reduce our choices for the good of the broadcasters, but encourage the free market system to work it out. Thanks for taking the time to listen.